

Hiwassee Hiking Club

October 15, 2010

The Hiwassee Hiking Club met on October 15, 2010 at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Stephen Cartwright for a hot dog cookout. The regular monthly meeting was called to order at 7:40 p.m. by the new President, Esther Nunley. The Secretary-Treasurer's report was approved as read with one correction that the T-shirts are not yet available, and the price will be $23.50.

A past hike on the Unicoi Turnpike Trail was reported by Joanne Jackson. Ken Jones reported on the Volunteer Appreciation Picnic at Indian Boundary Lake on Public Lands Day. Jane Bohannon reported on a photography class on Public Lands Day given by Bill and Laura Hodge.

Upcoming Hikes:

October 17th – Scenic Spur Trail - This hike will be lead by Randy Morris, meeting at the trailhead near the Intersection of US 64 and TN 30 at 1:50 p.m.

October 31st – Lake McCamy – This hike will make use of some new trails around the lake and Chilhowie Campground. Contact Bob Lee if you plan to go on this hike.

Old Business:

The club voted to join the Southeastern Foot Trails Coalition (SEFTC) since a membership fee is no longer required.

The club voted to renew our membership in the American Hiking Society.

New Business:

A discussion was held concerning the need to keep the web page updated since we are no longer issuing a newsletter.

The club approved a motion to have the club officers go through the last 5 years of club documents and discard any unnecessary documents such as membership applications.

The club approved a motion to continue planning future hikes on a monthly basis.

The next meeting will be held at Athens Diner on November 1st at 6:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Ken Jones, Secretary - Treasurer
